COMMON MARKET LAW REVIEW

ISSN 0165-0750

Vol. 63, No. 4 August 2026

Solicitud de artículos a la Biblioteca

Editorial comments: The governance of Union membership 1011–1020

Articles

Morgan De Walsche, Cumulative application of free movement law and fundamental rights in the 'derogation situation': A multidimensional challenge 1021–1060

Michèle Finck, Legal imaginations of the AI Act: A constitutional perspective on the pre-emption of Member State competence 1061–1096

Gonzalo Larrea, The quest for 'corporate sustainability': Reconciling a multi-layered concept with competitiveness 1097–1128

Martin Milán Csirszki & András Tóth, Balancing national and EU-level enforcement in EU consumer law reform: The case of the UCPD and dark patterns 1129–1158

Jérôme Monsenego, Remedies for unlawful fiscal State aid: Can national courts address coexisting different levels of taxation through tax refunds? 1159–1188

Case law

Anna Piszcz, EU jurisdictional law and antitrust follow-on damages claims against a parent company as an anchor defendant: Athenian Brewery 1189–1210

Daniele Gallo, Unravelling the place of services of general economic interest under EU law through waste management: Mixed lessons from Interzero 1211–1238

Miłosz Malaga, Energy solidarity in the competition law toolbox after Orlen v Commission: Alive and dead until observed 1239–1262

Lou Vanbeselaere, Fundamental principles or fundamental rights? Identity-based refusal under the European Investigation Order after Bissilli 1263–1284

Book reviews 1285–1296

Survey of literature 1297–1328