

WORK AND OCCUPATIONS

ISSN 0730-8884, e-ISSN 1552-8464

Vol. 53, n. 1, February 2026

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Special Issue: Working for Social Change

Guest Editors: Jonathan S. Coley (Oklahoma State University) and Jessica L. Schachle-Gordon (Stephen F. Austin State University)

Introduction

Occupational Activism: Conceptual Distinctions and Theoretical Frameworks 3
Jonathan S. Coley and Jessica L. Schachle-Gordon

Pathways to Occupational Activism

Called Upon or Stumbled Upon? A Careers Perspective on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Work in UK Higher Education 25
Tomi Koljonen

"I've Come to This Approach Through a Lot of Learning and Unlearning":
Resocialization as Preparation for Occupational Activism 58
Gabby Gomez

Obstacles to and Dilemmas of Occupational Activism

"[It's] Always Better When Something is Organic": Structural and Cultural Impediments to Millennials' Occupational Activism 91
Adia Harvey Wingfield

Commercial Gentrification as Occupational Activism: How Business Owners
Work to Preserve Latinx Barrios in Southern California 117
Janet Muñiz and Yael Shmaryahu-Yeshurun

Modes and Outcomes of Occupational Activism

Occupational Activism of Outsiders within: How Journalists of Color Work
Toward a More Expansive News Ecosystem 149
Laura Garbes

Prefigurative Occupational Activism: How Religion-Inspired Psychologists
Transform Their Profession as a Means for Social Change 180
Orly Tal and Michal Pagis

Lights, Camera, Activism: Recognition Strategies in Hollywood and Comedy 214
Nicole R. Letourneau, Derek J. Robey, and Michèle Lamont

Change Agents with a Past: Women Executives' Early-Career Contexts and Gender Equality at Workplaces 267
Sofie Wiersma, Zoltán Lippényi, and Anja-Kristin Abendroth